

Report on Visit of International Delegation from Synergy University, Moscow

Date of Visit: 13th February 2023

Venue: Seminar Hall, Sandip Institute of Engineering and Management

The international delegation from Synergy University, Moscow has recently visited the Sandip Foundation's Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences for future collaboration purpose. The future collaboration strategies discussed during the visit involves joint research projects, staff exchange, student exchange, organising joint conferences.

The international delegation consisted 14 delegates from the Moscow as well as Dubai campus. The delegation was headed by the President Dr. Sergei, Mrs. Anastasia Shansina, Mrs. Tatyana, Mr. Gabriel and other staff members from Moscow campus. The delegation was greeted by Dr. Dipak P. Patil, Director of International Affairs Cell of Sandip Foundation and had briefed about the history and miraculous journey of Sandip Foundation. Sir has given the in brief idea about the campus and various schools involved in delivering the quality education at Sandip foundation. The emphasis was given on world class infrastructure that can be used to develop the technologies that current generation needs. Sir has highlighted the world class facilities at Sandip Institute of Technology and Research Centre, Sandip Institute of Engineering and Management, Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Sandip Polytechnic working under the umbrella of Sandip Foundation. Along with this, the journey has involved the in detailed introduction to School of Computer Sciences and Engineering, School of Engineering and Technology, School of Commerce, School of Science, School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, School of Law, School of Business, School of Fashion Design and Technology working under the autonomous Sandip University, Nasik.

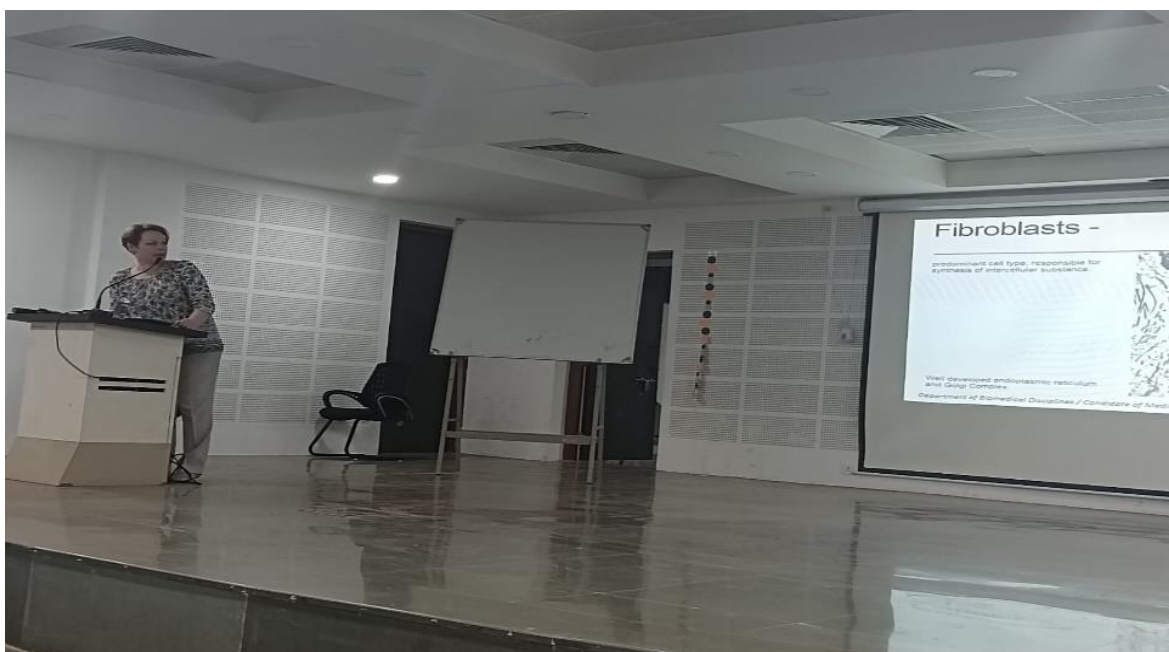

This morning session was followed by lunch break for the delegates at guest house. After this break, the delegates have been accompanied by various authorities for visit to individual schools where they have personally visited each department and got to know the facilities which can be utilized for future collaborative work. The The delegates were amazed to see such a world class facilities in the mechanical, aerospace, pharmaceutical, civil, electrical, computer, software departments. The interactive session was given by Mrs. Tatyana from Msocow campus on topic 'Connective Tissues' for B.Pharmacy students and opportunities for students to pursue higher education in foreign university. She has highlighted the updates in the field of connective tissues with focus on ongoing research projects at their campus.

The visit was further followed by the MOU signing ceremony held at SITRC board room.

The Glimpse of the Synergy University Delegation Visit

Aff

Dr. L.B. Borse
(Principal)

