Description of Session:

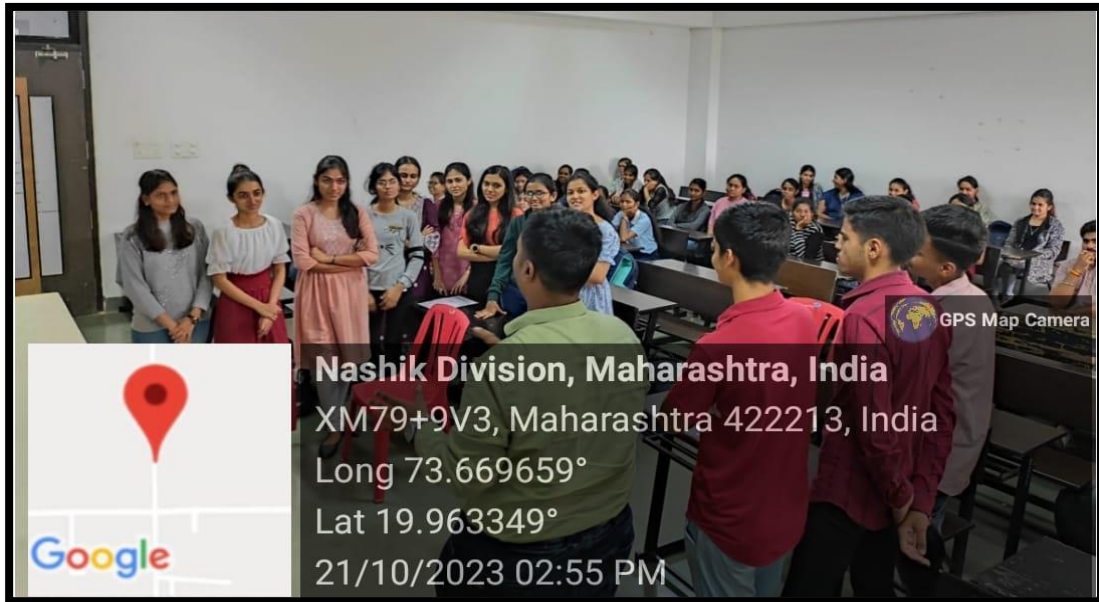

Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences organized a debate competition for students of B. Pharm and M. pharm on 21/10/2023.

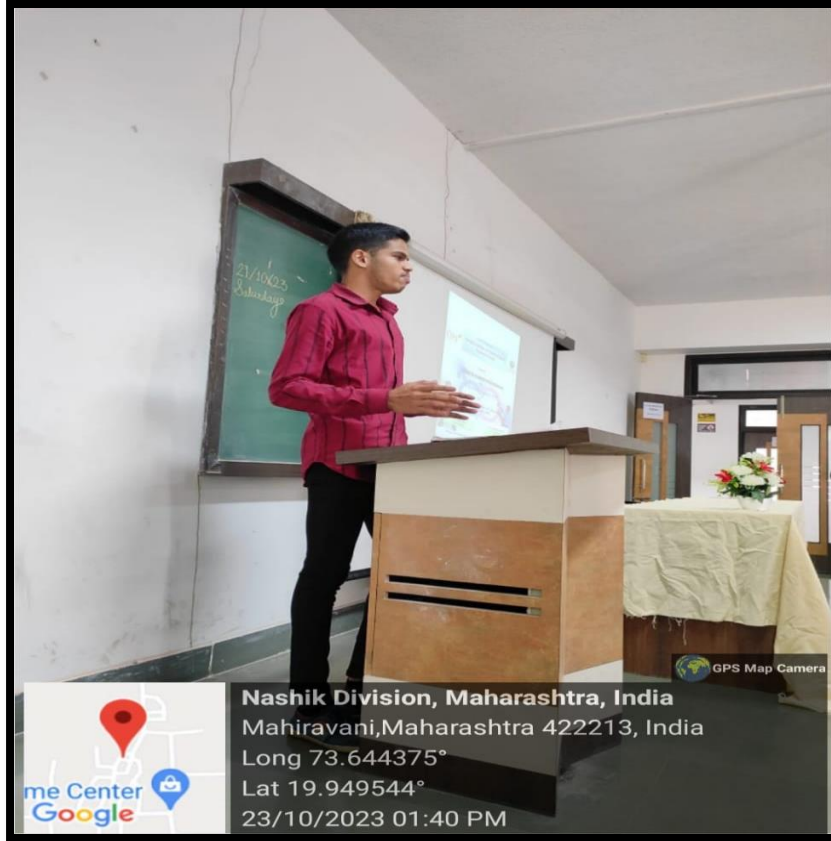

The topic for the debate was gender equity: myth vs Gender equity : reality.

Session was started with interaction of the Principal sir with students focusing on the present reality about the equality in genders. Further, students of the first year B. Pharm & Second year B. Pharm put their thoughts in front of the audience. First-year students discussed challenges faced by women in various fields, while second-year students emphasized the need for gender-sensitive policies. They all exhibited passion and understanding of the topic.

A lively debate ensued, with participants arguing for and against "Gender Equity: - Myth or Reality" The discussion was engaging, involving the audience's questions and personal anecdotes, reinforcing the importance of gender equity.
