Event/Report

On July 23, 2024, Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (SIPS), Sandip Foundation, Mahiravani, Nashik, organized an event to celebrate the birth anniversary of Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak. The program commenced with a Sarasvati Puja, signifying the auspicious start of the event and invoking blessings for wisdom and knowledge. The Principal of SIPS, Dr. L.B. Borse Sir, addressed the gathering, highlighting the importance of remembering and honoring great leaders like Tilak. He emphasized Tilak's role in the Indian independence movement and his impact on shaping the nation's identity. Students from S. Y, T. Y and Final year B.Pharm delivered speeches, each focusing on different aspects of Tilak's life and legacy. They spoke about his efforts in promoting Swadeshi (self-reliance), his role in the freedom struggle, and his contributions as a journalist and social reformer. The students' speeches were both informative and inspiring, reflecting their deep respect for Tilak's ideals.

On behalf of staff members Dr. Kamlesh Dandgavhal, also delivered a speech, further elaborating on Tilak's philosophies and how they remain relevant today. He encouraged the students to draw inspiration from Tilak's determination and dedication to the cause of independence.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to making the program a success. The students left the event with a renewed sense of patriotism and a greater appreciation for the contributions of Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak to India's history.
