

Event Report

Title of the event	National Constitution Day
Organized Date	26th November 2024
Name of the coordinator of the event	Mrs. Megha N. Chitte
Organizing Committee	SIPS Event Coordinator cell
Name of Participants	Students and Faculty members
Objective of the event	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commemorating the Constitution: The primary objective of the event was to mark the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of India, emphasizing its historical significance and the role it plays in shaping the country's democratic framework. • Promoting Constitutional Literacy: To enhance awareness and understanding of the Constitution among students and the broader community, focusing on the rights and duties of citizens, fundamental rights, and the importance of constitutional principles. • Encouraging Participation in Democracy: To instill a sense of civic responsibility and engagement among students, encouraging them to actively participate in the democratic processes of India, including voting and respecting constitutional values. • Honoring the Constitution Makers: To pay tribute to the framers of the Constitution and recognize their contributions in creating a framework for justice, equality, and fraternity in India. • Legal Awareness and Discussion: To facilitate discussions around contemporary issues related to the Constitution, human rights, and legal justice, fostering a deeper understanding of constitutional law.

Outcomes of the event

- Increased Constitutional Awareness:

The event successfully raised awareness about the Constitution, its historical significance, and the rights it guarantees to citizens. Attendees left with a deeper understanding of how the Constitution governs the country and its importance in daily life.

- Enhanced Engagement in Civic Issues:

Students demonstrated a heightened interest in participating in democratic processes and discussions on constitutional matters, with several expressing a desire to engage more actively in social and political issues.

- Promotion of Constitutional Values:

The discussions and cultural activities highlighted core values such as justice, equality, liberty, and fraternity, reinforcing their importance in shaping the nation's identity.

- Encouragement of Legal and Civic Literacy:

The event encouraged participants to learn more about their fundamental rights and duties, with many attendees expressing a desire to explore legal avenues for addressing social justice issues.

- Appreciation for Constitutional Makers:

The event honored the contributions of the framers of the Constitution, fostering a sense of respect and admiration for their vision and the sacrifices made in shaping India's democratic framework.

- Interactive and Thought-Provoking Discussions:

The interactive activities, such as the quiz and debates, stimulated critical thinking among students, helping them better understand the nuances of the Constitution and its practical application in contemporary issues.

- Increased Institutional Involvement:

The event attracted a wide range of participants, including students, faculty, and staff, thereby fostering a sense of community and collective responsibility towards upholding constitutional values.

Event/Report

On 26th November 2024, Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (SIPS), Sandip Foundation, Nashik, organized a special event to celebrate the 'National Constitution Day' or 'Sanvidhan Divas' with great enthusiasm and reverence, on which the Constitution of India was adopted by the Constituent Assembly. The Government of India decided to celebrate the principles and ethos enshrined in the Constitution, and as Constitution Day since the year 2015.

The celebration began with the lighting of the lamp, symbolizing knowledge and wisdom and Pratima Pujan of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar as he was the architect of Indian constitution.

The event commenced with a welcome address by the event co-ordinator Mrs. Megha N. Chitte, highlighting the significance of National Constitution Day and the importance of upholding constitutional values. A ceremonial reading of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution was conducted, with active participation from the attendees.

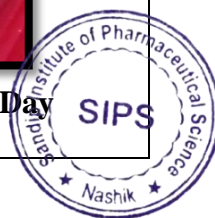

Student delivered the speech on National Constitution Day by addressing the "Rights and Duties of Indian Citizens" and "Role of the Constitution in Shaping Modern India, A presentation on the making of the Indian Constitution, featuring significant historical events, contributions of the framers, and key debates during the Constituent Assembly was shown by Dr. Kamlesh Dandagvhal, esteemed faculty member.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks from Ms. Janhavi (Student FY B Pharm), who expressed gratitude to all the speakers, participants, and attendees for making the event a success. The celebration of National Constitution Day at SIPS served as a reminder of the importance of Indian constitution. The program concluded with the National Anthem.

Glimpses of Program

Principal Sir lights the ceremonial lamp during the National Constitution Day Celebration

The event welcome speech by Faculty Mrs. Megha Chitte- Event Co-ordinator

A ceremonial reading of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution with active participation from the attendees

Speech given by Student Addressing the "Role of the Constitution in Shaping Modern India"

A presentation on the making of the Indian Constitution, featuring significant historical events, contributions of the framers, and key debates during the Constituent Assembly was delivered by Dr. Kamlesh Dandagyhal, faculty member.

Prof. Megha Chitte
Event Co-ordinator

Dr. Marina D'souza
IQAC Co-ordinator

Dr. Laxmikant B. Borse
Principal
Sandip Foundation's
Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences
Mahiravani, Nashik-422 213