Event/Report

On 11th November 2024, Sandip Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (SIPS), Sandip Foundation, Nashik, organized a special event to celebrate the National Education Day with great enthusiasm and reverence, commemorating the birth anniversary of Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad, India’s first Education Minister and a prominent freedom fighter, scholar, and visionary. The event aimed to honor Azad's contributions to the field of education and promote awareness on the importance of education in nation-building. The celebration began with the lighting of the lamp, symbolizing knowledge and wisdom, followed by a keynote address by Dr. Kamlesh Dandagvhal, esteemed faculty member, who emphasized the significance of Azad's vision and his role in establishing premier educational institutions like the IITs, IISc, and UGC. The speech also highlighted Azad's belief in inclusive education for all communities, which resonates with the values of our college.

Following Activities were organized, including:

1. Students Speech: Students from different streams delivered speeches on Importance of National Education day by addressing the theme “Empowering the future for Quality Education”
2. Poster Presentation: Students from different streams prepared posters depicting Maulana Azad's contributions to education and how education empowers individuals and societies. The posters were displayed across the campus, adding a visual element to the event

The program concluded with a vote of thanks from Ms. Nupur Mali (Student Council Member), who expressed gratitude to all the speakers, participants, and attendees for making the event a success. The celebration of National Education Day at SIPS served as a reminder of the importance of accessible, quality education and inspired students to contribute positively to society.
